

UCSC Title IX Quick Guide

Title IX Office UC Santa Cruz

titleix.ucsc.edu

Isabel Alvarado Dees, JD
Title IX Officer
she/her/ella

titleIX@ucsc.edu
(831) 459-2462

Sexual Violence & Sexual Harassment

Prevention, Education & Compliance

Supportive measures in education & the workplace

Coordinated Response to concerns & reports of Sexual Violence & Sexual Harassment

Complaint Resolution including Formal Investigation & Alternative Resolution

VAWA Accommodations

Gender Equity & Access

Strategies for increasing diversity in recruitments & retention

Gender Inclusive practices in pedagogy, supervision, & service philosophy

Employment & Academic support during Pregnancy (gestation or termination)

Lactation Room Access/Maps & Accommodations

LGBTQIA+

Response to Harassment & Bullying on the basis of Gender Identity & Gender Expression

Instances of sexual violence & harassment where respondent(s) & complainant(s) are gender queer &/or of the same gender

Employment & Academic support during gender affirmation process

All gender restrooms Access/Map

CONSULTATION & INTERVENTION

The Title IX Office is available for consultation, collaboration & referral on programs, policy, or issues of concern. If you have any questions or need assistance, please contact UCSC's Title IX Office. Call (831) 459-2462 or e-mail titleIX@ucsc.edu

TRAININGS WORKSHOPS PRESENTATIONS

SVSH Policy

- Prohibited Conduct
- Investigation Process
- Adjudication Frameworks
- Process Overview
- Support Person Training
- Responsible Employee Requirements
- Trauma Informed Practices

* Title IX creates custom trainings, workshops & content upon request after consultation.

Prevention

- Bystander training
- Creating a Culture of Inclusion
- Creating a Culture of Consent
- Receiving Disclosures
- Dealing with Difficult

Graduate Students

- Tips & Tools: TAing while Grad Student
- Prevention Practices in Pedagogy
- Ethics Training

Climate

- Title IX: It's about Equity & Inclusion
- Listening Sessions
- Facilitated Climate Discussion
- Process Debrief
- Community Healing Circles
- Meet & Greet

be clear and upfront about your role as a MANDATED REPORTER

If you feel someone is going to disclose it is best to interrupt and disclose your reporting responsibilities

You can say something like:

"I am sorry to interrupt. I appreciate the trust you are placing in me and want to make sure that before you share your story you know that I am required to report the details with the Title IX Office by University policy. I f you just want to talk about an issue of sexual violence, CARE advocates are a confidential resource that you can use.

I can connect you with CARE or we can report to Title IX together.

Title IX will review the report and will reach out to you with resources and options."

Access online reporting link at

TITLEIX.UCSC.EDU

REPORTING

All UC employees are considered "responsible employees", which means that you are obligated to report any Title IX concern to the Title IX Office.

- Report immediately – we must take action once a Responsible Employee has notice of sexual harassment or misconduct.
 - Actual – reported to you, even by a third party; you witnessed it
 - indirect –from flyers posted on campus, media, online postings, videos; disclosed through assignments, applications, appeals
 - Constructive – information we should have known (based on rumors, general knowledge, "everyone knows")
- Be prepared to make modifications in your are that may be necessary for safety or interim measures, but only after coordinating with the Title IX Office.
- Supervisors you may have a role in adjudication and/or referral for performance management of staff and student employee matters.
- Request a Title IX consultation if you are unsure if you need to report.
- Stay current on required trainings.
- Provide Resources

CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES

CARE Advocate Office
(831) 502-2273 (9 to 5 pm, M-F on-campus)
Email: care@ucsc.edu
care.ucsc.edu

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)
(831) 459-2628 (24-hour hotline)
caps.ucsc.eduEmployee

Assistance Program
(866) 808-6205 (24-hour hotline)
shr.ucsc.edu/benefits/eap

Monarch Services
(888) 900-4232 (24-hour hotline)
monarchsc.org

REPORTING OPTIONS

Title IX Office
(831) 459-2462
Access online reporting link at titleix.ucsc.edu

UC Santa Cruz Police Department
(831) 459-2231, x 1
Email: police@ucsc.edu police.ucsc.edu

COMMENTS, FEEDBACK & SUGGESTIONS

The Title IX Office welcomes feedback. Share your thoughts: TitleIX@ucsc.edu